

Applying for WIC (Woman, Infant & Children)

Description:

Women, infant and children (WIC) is a federally funded nutrition program for Women, Infants, and Children that provides the following at no cost: healthy foods, nutrition education and counseling, breastfeeding support, and referrals for health care. For more information visit the website here.

Who is eligible?

Pregnant, postpartum and breastfeeding women, infants, and children up to age 5 are eligible.

Criteria includes:

- Legal residency / citizenship is NOT required (WIC does not report legal status to the federal government)
- Must live in Florida (citizenship not required)
- Must be income eligible
- If you receive Medicaid, temporary cash assistance, food Stamps you are eligible.

Documents Required for Enrollment:

- Florida ID
- Child's social security and birth certificates
- Letter or mail with current mailing address

To Apply

Contact your local WIC clinic Broward County: 954-767-5110 or 954-767-5111
Dade County: 786-336-1300 to make an appointment at a local center. Find a center near you here.

Required Documents to be taken to the appointment:

Proof of income. If you get food stamps (SNAP), Medicaid, or cash assistance (TANF), you're automatically eligible for WIC from the financial perspective.

1. Bring proof of income for all members of your household. That could be a paycheck stub, a recent tax return, or a letter from your employer. If you aren't already receiving SNAP, or TANF.
2. Proof of identity. Bring a government ID, such as a driver's license, or another kind of photo ID plus a bill, rent receipt, or letter from an employer that's addressed to you.
3. Your child or proof of pregnancy. Bring your child or a note from your doctor saying that you're pregnant.
4. Immunization records for children if you have children.